ESBS 2020
Thursday, May 7, 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Thompson Management Consulting, LLC announces its 7th Annual Entrepreneurship and Small Business Summit (ESBS 2020), which is scheduled on Thursday, May 7, 2020 during the 57th observance of National Small Business Week. ESBS 2020 will be held at The Busbee International Center at Gwinnett Technical College (Building #700), 5150 Sugarloaf Parkway, Lawrenceville, GA 30043. The event is scheduled for 7:30 AM – 4:00 PM, with breakfast refreshments and networking beginning at 7:30AM, followed by our morning Keynote Address with whom we are still confirming. A full Caribbean buffet lunch is sponsored by LeGomier Caribbean Restaurant. Both breakfast and lunch are included in the registration cost. The morning keynote address will be delivered by Mr. Glenn Christian, Co-Founder/President/COO of the Metro Atlanta Business Association (MABA). Our lunch keynote speaker is Mr. Corey Moore, Owner and Tax Advisor for the Fortune Financial Group, LLC. Bios of both keynote speakers are available HERE. In addition, we will have a health fair with onsite free screenings, and a B2B Expo with 25 exhibitors promoting their businesses. Advance attendee registration is $25 (CLICK HERE), and exhibitor registration is $175 (CLICK HERE). This event has an active attendance of 100-150 business owners and professionals, which continues to grow.

We invite all small business owners, entrepreneurs, aspiring entrepreneurs, business professionals, thought leaders, decision-makers, policy makers, and members of academia to attend. Our theme this year is “Fulfilling Entrepreneurship Greatness”.

Activities scheduled for ESBS 2020 will include business workshops, panel discussions, a health fair with free screenings, onsite banking representatives, and possible business plan reviews. Attendees will enjoy meeting and engaging directly with fellow business owners, representatives from government agencies, and consultants. Topics for consideration include, but not limited to, business and strategy planning, sales and lead generation, effective marketing strategies, the best legal business structure for your business, avoiding IRS penalties, human resources strategies, small business financing, government contracting, growing a successful woman owned business, the power of using video in your marketing plan, and much more. A finalized agenda will be available once we have all our speakers and their workshop titles confirmed, accompanied with their bios. Kindly view the list of possible workshops HERE. An announcement will be made when the agenda is finalized and ready to be published, but kindly continue to check for all updates. Businesses are encouraged to register to exhibit and promote their services. People do business with those they know, so get the visibility you need to grow. If no one knows you exist, how can they do business with you?
